

growing groceries

A series of ten monthly classes providing seasonal, practical information and skills to help you successfully grow your own food.

9:00 AM–12:00 Noon (with occasional afternoons)
2nd Saturday of each month
Bayview High School (at Bayview Corner)
$15/class (scholarships available)

February 13

MORNING CLASS (9:00 AM–12:00 NOON):

It's Winter But I Feel Like Gardening- What Do I Do?

- garden planning
- selecting seeds
- growing starts (go home with a tray of starts for $5)
- top tips for the month
- Q & A (bring your questions!)

Presenters: Molly Petersons, Bill McInville, Cary Peterson

AFTERNOON CLASS (1:00 PM–4:00 PM):

Practical Pruning

- Pruning your fruit trees for an abundant harvest.
- Hands-on—bring your pruners and loppers.

Presenter: Sarah Birger

NEXT CLASSES IN THE SERIES

MARCH 13: Getting an early start: what to plant when it's still cold.
APRIL 10: Get the greens going: early spring plantings and irrigation.
MAY 8: The warmth is coming: beans, squashes, corn, basil.
JUNE 12: Better late than never: summer planting.
JULY 10: Yikes, it's time to plan for winter vegetables.
AUGUST 14: The last plantings, and gearing up for cover crops.
SEPTEMBER 11: Can it be summer just a little longer?
OCTOBER 9: Getting your garden ready for next season.
NOVEMBER 13: The garden is resting...

PARTNER ORGANIZATIONS

